ORAL JUDGMENT

It appears that, due to sad demise of learned counsel Shri. G.N. Desai appearing on behalf of the petitioner notice was required to be issued upon the petitioner to make arrangement for prosecuting this matter. The notice appears to have been duly served upon the petitioner on 2/5/2001. None appears for the petitioner and appears to have made no arrangement for prosecuting this case further. Similar notice was also issued upon the respondents indicating that the advocate appearing on their behalf has been elevated to the Bench of this Court and therefore, they may make arrangement. That notice was also served. It appears that though served non appeared for either party. In view of this, this Court is constrained to dismiss the matter for default. Accordingly the petition is dismissed for default. Rule discharged.
